EDWARD STRYKER

August 18, 1926

Resident of 484 Easton Avenue, New Brunswick

TESTIFIED (pages 534 et seq.):

Lives on Easton Avenue next to De Russeys Lane he would say, though not sure, about 500 yards from crab apple tree.(534)

Visited scene before bodies identified.

They were on their backs and clothing was very neat, the woman's clothing being tucked in (535).

Does not know whether eyes of either were open or closed and did not see any watch chain, watch, bill fold, letters, or cards (535).

Officer Carrigan there alone (536).

Schneider went up with Officers Carrigan and Curran. Stryker went up with Miss Edwards (536).

Carrigan was careful to see that bodies were not disturbed. (537).
